Tug Ranch Gelding

$ 4,000

Description

Tug was used to pony colts, rope and day work on a ranch in Ga. We were also told he knew the barrel Pattern but we haven't tried him, so I'm not selling him as a barrel horse. This horse has so much heart, is very eager to please his rider and handles well. He neck reins, backs, lopes and trots circles, side passes, will drag, doesn't mind a rope thrown and loves his job. He stands tied quietly to be saddled, loads easily and comes to you in the pasture. He will trail ride all day long, not spooky and easy to handle. Gets along well with a mixed heard. Tug does have buttons so I don't recommend him for a beginner. We absolutely love this horse..he is just a pleasure to be around. He has all the bells and whistles along with the absolute sweetest personality..will lick you to death. He just had his teeth floated Nov 29th, Shots are up to date, Current coggins. He is missing his right eye, was extracted and sewn up by the vet who did an awesome job. (close to a year or so ago)
